White Doves Release Policy

Our doves are very important to us. Please read our conditions below before making a booking.

Inclement Weather : We cannot release our doves in bad weather conditions such as heavy rain, snow, fog or strong winds as they cannot navigate safely. If we have to cancel a release due to bad weather a full refund will be given.

Cancellation by you: There will be no refund of any monies paid should you decide to cancel your booking.

Event Delays: Release of the doves will be cancelled, without a refund, if there is :

* An event delay resulting in insufficient time for the doves to fly home before dusk

* We are flexible on time and will give up to half an hour from agreed time of release. However, after that there will be a £20 fee for one hour delay charged or £10 per half an hour delay payable in cash on the day to the dove release co-ordinator.

Our Doves : the birds are fed a special diet before the event. It's very unlikely that they will do their droppings during a release. In case of an accident we cannot be held responsible, although this has never happened yet.

The birds MUST NOT be released indoors or at night time.

A non-refundable £25 deposit will secure your booking; the balance will be due four weeks prior if paying by cheque and one week prior if paying by bank deposit.

An experienced dove handler will be present at all times to co-ordinate the dove release.
